

Pollack Family Foundation Celebrity Golf Classic

Former NFL and University of Georgia football player, and current ESPN College GameDay analyst David Pollack will host his seventh annual Pollack Family Foundation Celebrity Golf Classic. This exclusive golf event will raise funds for the Children's Healthcare of Atlanta Strong4Life Program. Each corporate foursome will be paired with a celebrity for a memorable round of golf. Previous celebrity guests have included Aaron Murray, David Greene, Brad Johnson, DJ Shockley, Richard Seymour, Dan Uggla, Brian McCann, and Rick Flair.

Proceeds from all event activities will benefit the Children's Strong4Life Program, which helps families raise healthy, safe, resilient kids. David and Lindsey Pollack, along with their kids Nicholas and Leah, created the Pollack Family Foundation based on three pillars—Whole. Life. Health.—with the mission of raising awareness about childhood obesity. Their goal is to educate individuals, families and communities on the benefits of nutrition and exercise, and to provide opportunities to embrace healthy living through eating well and physical activity. Their vision is a nation of healthy families.
