

Pollack Family Foundation Celebrity Golf Classic

Former NFL player, University of Georgia football player, and ESPN College GameDay analyst David Pollack will host his eighth annual Pollack Family Foundation Celebrity Golf Classic. This exclusive golf event will raise funds for the Children's Healthcare of Atlanta's Strong4Life programs. Each corporate foursome will be paired with a celebrity for a memorable round of golf. Previous celebrity guests have included Aaron Murray, David Greene, Brad Johnson, DJ Shockley, Richard Seymour, Dan Uggle, Brian McCann and Rick Flair.

David and Lindsey Pollack, along with their kids Nicholas and Leah, created the Pollack Family Foundation based on three pillars: Faith, Family and Community. Proceeds from all event activities will benefit Strong4Life, the child advocacy and prevention arm of Children's. Backed by Children's doctors, nurses, therapists, dieticians and other wellness experts, Strong4Life helps families raise healthy, resilient kids. The initiative focuses on four pillars of prevention: obesity prevention, behavioral and mental health, injury and illness prevention, and child protection.
