

Pollack Family Foundation Celebrity Golf Classic and Dinner

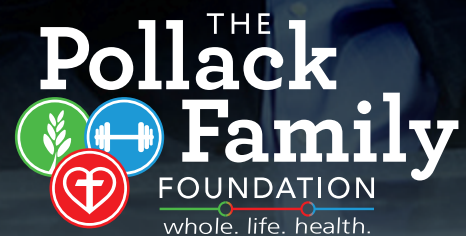

Friday, April 21, 2017

The Georgia Club

Former NFL and UGA player and current ESPN College GameDay broadcaster, David Pollack, will host his second annual Pollack Family Foundation Celebrity Golf Classic and Dinner. This exclusive golf and dinner event will raise funds for the Children's Healthcare of Atlanta Strong4Life program. Each corporate foursome will be paired with a celebrity for a memorable round of golf. Later that evening will be a special dinner event with impressive auction items. Celebrity guests expected to attend the golf and dinner events will include a number of professional athletes, former UGA football players as well as special guests from the broadcasting and coaching ranks.

The event will be held at the highly acclaimed Georgia Club the day before the annual G-Day spring football game in Athens. If you are planning to go to Athens for G-Day this will be a great way to start the weekend by playing in the golf tournament and/or attending the dinner event.

Proceeds from the event will benefit Children's Healthcare of Atlanta through the Pollack Family Foundation. David and Lindsey Pollack along with their kids Nicholas and Leah created their Foundation based on three pillars, "Whole-Life-Health" with the mission toward raising awareness against childhood obesity. Their mission is to educate individuals, families and communities on the benefits of nutrition and exercise, and to provide them opportunities to embrace healthy living through eating well and physical activity. Their vision is a nation of healthy families.
