

The Pollack Family Foundation Celebrity Golf Classic

Former NFL and UGA player, ESPN College GameDay broadcaster, and 2020 College Football Hall of Fame inductee, David Pollack, will host his fifth annual Pollack Family Foundation Celebrity Golf Classic.

This exclusive golf event will raise funds for the Children's Healthcare of Atlanta Strong4Life Program. Each corporate foursome will be paired with a celebrity for a memorable round of golf. Celebrity guests expected to attend include David Greene, Matt Schaub, Jake Westbrook and Brad Johnson.

Proceeds from all event activities will benefit the Children's Strong4Life Program. David and Lindsey Pollack, along with their kids Nicholas and Leah, created the Pollack Family Foundation based on three pillars—"Whole. Life. Health."—with the mission of raising awareness about childhood obesity. Their goal is to educate individuals, families and communities on the benefits of nutrition and exercise, and to provide opportunities to embrace healthy living through eating well and physical activity. Their vision is a nation of healthy families.
